James King
Annand

was born and brought up in Edinburgh. His bairn rhymes continue to delight Scots children, but he was also the author of poetry for adults, and an active promoter of the Scots language

NESSIE
by JK Annand

Nessie the Loch Ness Monster
Wad seem to be gey blate,
And doesna like the scientist chieils
That come, and sit, and wait.

But gif ye want to see her
Pretend ye dinna care,
Keek oot the corner o your ee -
Ye'll see her soomin there.

She'll wiggle-humphie-waggle,
She'll goggle wi her een,
Synne disappear ablow the loch
Like she had never been.

TASKS FOR WEEK ONE:

1. Read JK Annand poem “Nessie”
2. Use: pencil, pen to create at least three different headlines for the poem.
3. If possible, use a dotted paper it will help you to be accurate with your writing
4. Try to use different fonts for your heading.

5. If you are filling your drawing elements with colour, make sure you are doing it nearly.

6. Watch a clip: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qchR_voCF0s for some ideas.
