

Health and Disease Crossword

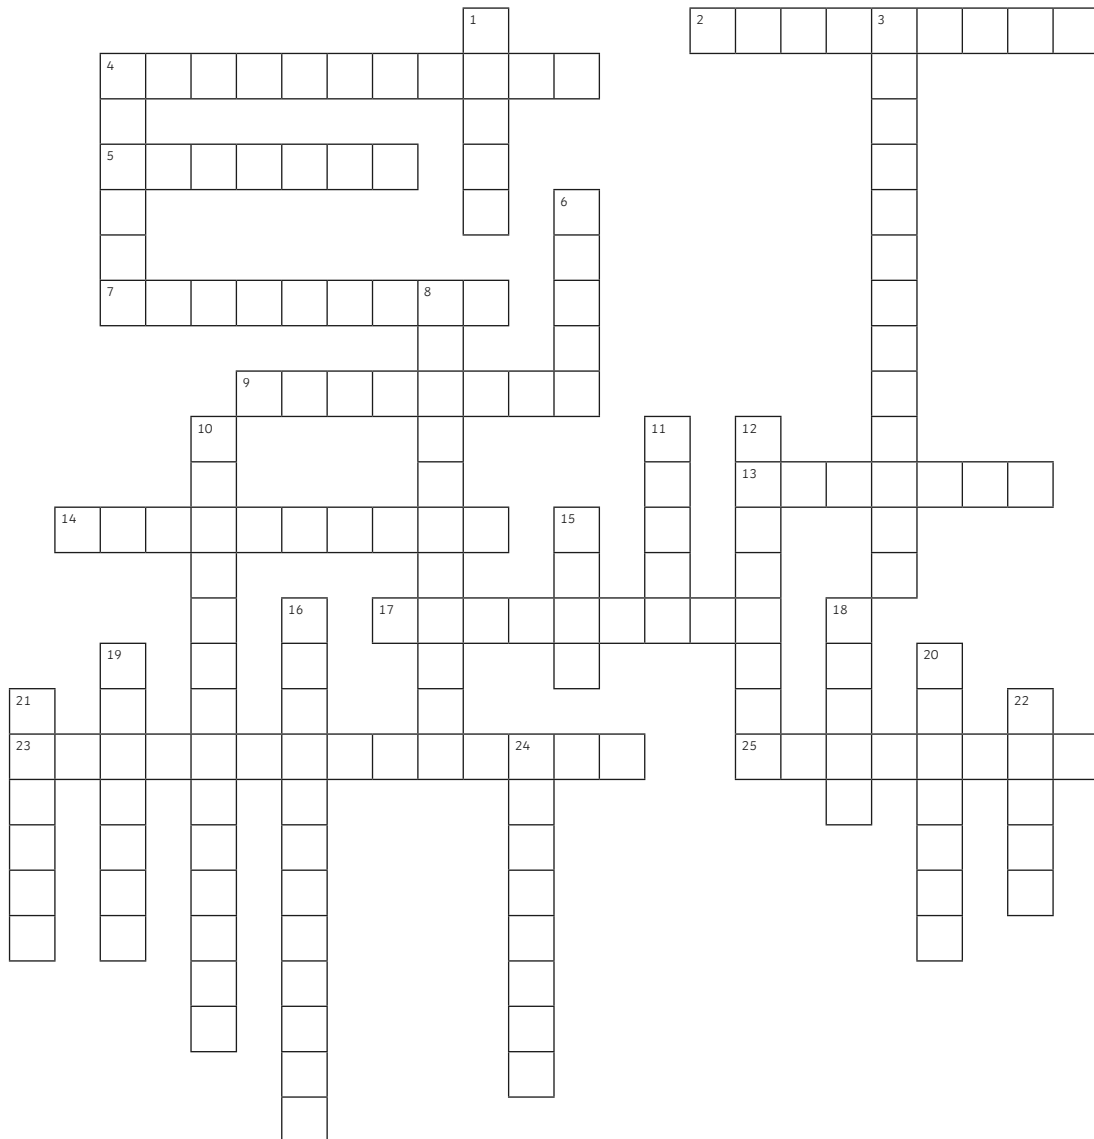

Across

2. Disease of the liver that can result from drinking alcohol. [9]
4. Medicine prescribed to help fight off infection in the body. [11]
5. Smoke from this substance contains many harmful substances. [7]
7. A property of a substance that makes someone continue to need it. [9]
9. Drugs used to treat pain, illness or disease. [8]
13. A drug not allowed by law. [7]
14. Type of drug that slows down the nervous system, such as alcohol and barbiturates. [10]
17. Type of drug that give the feeling of lots of energy, such as caffeine and amphetamine. [10]
23. Very tiny living things. [4]
25. Age limit to purchase alcohol in the UK. [8]

Down

1. Type of microorganism that is smaller than bacteria and requires a host to live. [5]
3. Type of drug that causes illusions of the mind. [13]
4. A condition that is caused by inflammation of the airways, which is often a response to allergens. [6]
6. Type of blood cells that fight infection. A colour. [11]
8. Usually given in the form of an injection, designed to help your bod establish an immunity against a microorganism or disease. [11]
10. A harmful gas found in tobacco smoke. It takes the place of oxygen and can affect the circulatory system. [6,8]
11. Tiny hair-like parts on the cells that line the airways. [5]
12. Addictive substance found in tobacco smoke. [8]
15. A substance that affects the way the body works. [4]
16. Drugs used for fun. They can be legal or illegal. [12]
18. Yeast is an example of this type of microorganism. [6]
19. Type of microorganism that is single- celled and can be found everywhere. They can cause infection but can also be very helpful. [8]
20. Chemical released by the microbes. [7]
21. The body system that is responsible for fighting off disease. [6]
22. A drug allowed by law. [5]
24. Drug found in products such as paint, aerosols and glue. [8]

Health and Disease Crossword

drug	eighteen	nicotine
legal	depressant	cilia
illegal	solvents	carbon monoxide
recreational	microorganisms	immune
medicine	bacteria	vaccination
hallucinogens	virus	white
addictive	fungi	antigen
stimulant	asthma	antibiotics
cirrhosis	tobacco

Across

2. Disease of the liver that can result from drinking alcohol. [9]
4. Medicine prescribed to help fight off infection in the body. [11]
5. Smoke from this substance contains many harmful substances. [7]
7. A property of a substance that makes someone continue to need it. [9]
9. Drugs used to treat pain, illness or disease. [8]
13. A drug not allowed by law. [7]
14. Type of drug that slows down the nervous system, such as alcohol and barbiturates. [10]
17. Type of drug that give the feeling of lots of energy, such as caffeine and amphetamine. [10]
23. Very tiny living things. [4]
25. Age limit to purchase alcohol in the UK. [8]

Down

1. Type of microorganism that is smaller than bacteria and requires a host to live. [5]
3. Type of drug that causes illusions of the mind. [13]
4. A condition that is caused by inflammation of the airways, which is often a response to allergens. [6]
6. Type of blood cells that fight infection. A colour. [11]
8. Usually given in the form of an injection, designed to help your bod establish an immunity against a microorganism or disease. [11]
10. A harmful gas found in tobacco smoke. It takes the place of oxygen and can affect the circulatory system. [6,8]
11. Tiny hair-like parts on the cells that line the airways. [5]
12. Addictive substance found in tobacco smoke. [8]
15. A substance that affects the way the body works. [4]
16. Drugs used for fun. They can be legal or illegal. [12]
18. Yeast is an example of this type of microorganism. [6]
19. Type of microorganism that is single- celled and can be found everywhere. They can cause infection but can also be very helpful. [8]
20. Chemical released by the microbes. [7]
21. The body system that is responsible for fighting off disease. [6]
22. A drug allowed by law. [5]
24. Drug found in products such as paint, aerosols and glue. [8]

Health and Disease Crossword Answers

